

Youth Sensitisation Through Social Action

Internship Report · Relief Mission Foundation

Samriddhi Saxena · Roll No: 25SCS1003001319 · Batch 2025–29 · Virtual Internship · 1 Aug – 1 Sep 2026

Presentation Outline

01	02	03
About the NGO	Internship Overview	Department Profile
04	05	06
Roles & Responsibilities	Main Project	Challenges & Lessons Learned 07
Conclusion

About the NGO

 RELIEF MISSION FOUNDATION

A Step To Relief · Jaipur-based registered charitable foundation

Mission

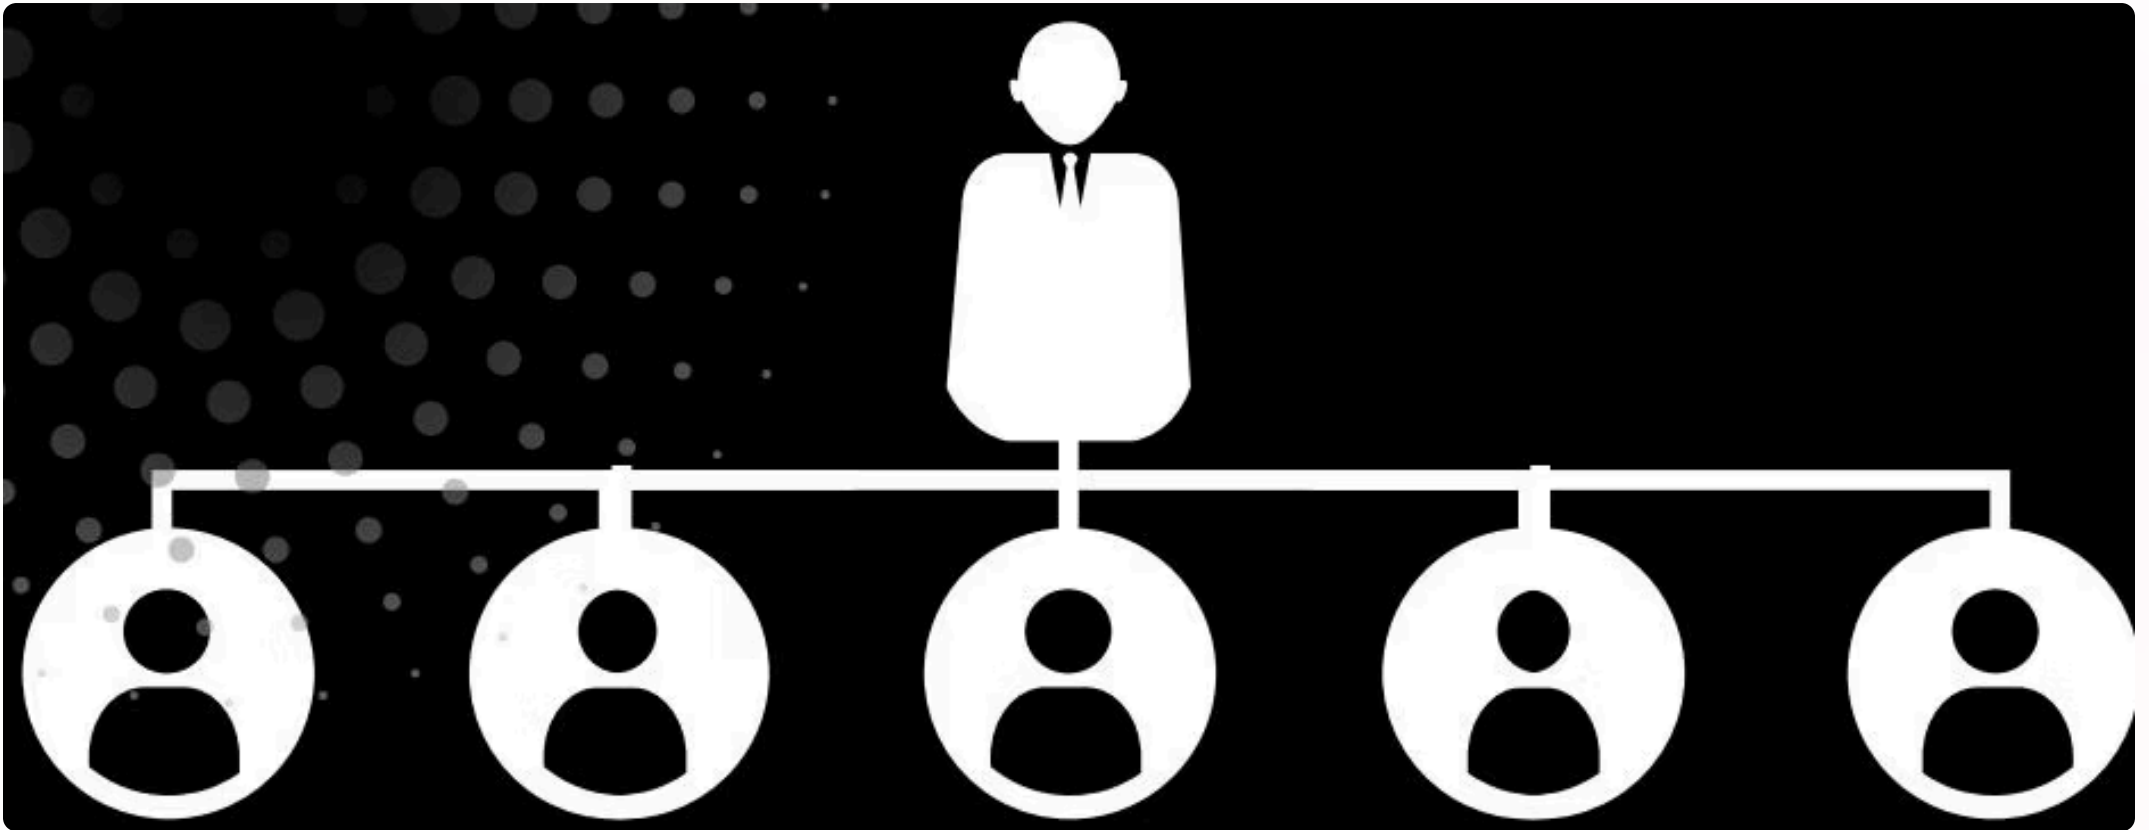

Transforming lives of children and vulnerable populations by building lasting community relationships and generating funds for their well-being.

Approach

Working closely with children, attending to daily needs, and creating opportunities for healthier, happier lives with renewed purpose and hope.

Leadership

Directed by Seema Yadav · info@reliefmissionfoundation.org

Internship Overview

Department Graphic Designing	Duration 1 Aug – 1 Sep 2026
Supervisor Vijeta Singh, HR Specialist	Mode Virtual

Objectives

- Create creative and engaging visual content for the NGO
- Increase awareness about social causes and community issues
- Design social media posts, posters, banners, and infographics

Department Profile

HUMAN RESOURCES · VIRTUAL SUB-TEAM

Core Focus

Talent Acquisition · Graphic Design & Visual Employer Branding

My Role

Operating within the department's centralized leadership structure, my role as a Graphic Designer Intern focuses on driving targeted digital outreach and enhancing the overall candidate experience. By translating structured recruitment pipelines into high-impact visual assets, my work directly supports continuous organizational growth. Every design asset is engineered to align visually with the foundation's core community welfare mission.

ern recruitment

rough structured

Roles & Responsibilities

A graphic designer intern in an NGO creates visual media like social media posts, reports, and posters to help the organization share its mission and raise funds.

Create posts for platforms like Instagram, Facebook, and LinkedIn

Design templates that staff can reuse easily

Create posters and banners to explain programs or ask for help

Follow brand rules (use the right colors, fonts, and logos)

Design brochures and pamphlets for community events

Format newsletters to update supporters on current projects

Main Project

Develop a complete visual communication campaign promoting the NGO's social initiatives — designing social media posts, posters, infographics, fundraising creatives, event materials, and awareness content. The project aims to strengthen online presence, increase engagement, and communicate social impact effectively.

Medical Emergency

Community Outreach

Fundraising Activities

Rakhi Campaign

Blanket Donations

Birthday Celebrations

Food Donations

Challenges & Lessons Learned

Challenges

1. Creating designs within limited resources
2. Understanding the NGO's campaign goals and requirements
3. Managing multiple design tasks and deadlines
4. Maintaining consistent branding across different designs

Lessons Learned

1. Focus on the message — NGO design prioritizes clarity over gloss
2. Prioritize clarity — simple posters that explain social issues work best
3. Measure real impact — success is actions, donations, and learning
4. Respect the subjects — handle photos and stories with dignity
5. Work with small budgets — great visuals using free tools

Conclusion

Working as a Graphic Designer Intern at an NGO was a valuable and enriching experience — developing creative and professional skills through social media posts, posters, banners, awareness campaigns, fundraising creatives, and infographics.

Design Skills

Improved knowledge of design principles, typography, colors, layouts, and graphic design tools.

Professional Growth

Developed teamwork, communication, time management, creativity, problem-solving, and feedback handling.

Social Impact

Understood how graphic design plays an important role in creating awareness and supporting social causes.

Overall, this internship gave me practical experience, increased my confidence, and provided a strong foundation for my future career in graphic design.

Thank You

Samriddhi Saxena · Roll No: 25SCS1003001319 · IILM University